

nature surrounds you

Coquitlam

Port Coquitlam

Pitt Meadows

Fraser River

so much to discover

LEGEND

- Traboulay PoCo Trail – South Pitt River
- Traboulay PoCo Trail – Colony Farm
- Traboulay PoCo Trail – Downtown
- Traboulay PoCo Trail – Coquitlam River/Hyde Creek
- Traboulay PoCo Trail – DeBoville Slough/North Pitt River
- Paved Section of the Trail
- TransCanada Trail
- Bridge or Overpass/Underpass
- Primary Access Point
- Secondary Access Point
- Neighbourhood Access Point
- Viewpoint Panoramic
- Parking
- Washrooms
- Picnic Shelter

DISTANCES:

Hyde Creek Recreation Centre to DeBoville Slough:	1.8km
DeBoville Slough to Prairie Avenue:	2.9km
Prairie Avenue to Dominion Avenue:	1.5km
Dominion Avenue to Peace Park:	4.0km
Peace Park to Pitt River Road:	1.4km
Pitt River Road to Shaughnessy Street:	2.2km
Shaughnessy Street to Red Bridge:	4.2km
Red Bridge to Gates Park:	1.5km
Gates Park to Lions Park:	1.0km
Lions Park to Hyde Creek Recreation Centre:	3.9km
Total kilometres:	24.4km

WILDLIFE ALERT

Bears and other wildlife are sometimes seen along the Traboulay PoCo Trail; please use caution. Keep dogs leashed and in control, and prevent encounters by making noise or using a bear bell. If you encounter a bear, slowly back away while talking to the bear. If you see a bear eating garbage or behaving aggressively, call the Provincial Conservation Officer at 1-800-663-9453. If you observe a bear on Port Coquitlam's trails or in a park, call the City at 604-927-5480. For more bear-related information and tips, visit www.bearaware.bc.ca and <http://wapwww.gov.bc.ca/bcparks/explore/misc/bears/bearsaf.htm>.

NOTE: Trail section temporarily closed until further notice

NOTE: Original trail closed until further notice; use temporary trail detour

